Code of CONDUCT

THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING ATLANTIC STATION.

Atlantic Station welcomes all guests! Atlantic Station and our parent company, Hines, are committed to our values of an inclusive and diverse community and culture. We condemn discrimination and injustice in all their forms. Atlantic Station is private property. In order to provide all visitors, residents and workers with an enjoyable experience, we ask you to conduct yourself in a respectful and non-discriminatory way in accordance with the code of conduct and all laws and local ordinances.

- A 3:00 p.m. curfew is strictly enforced. All youth under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian after 3:00 p.m. No more than 4 youths per parent or guardian. Juvenile groups of 4+ will be dispersed. No individuals under 21 are permitted on property after 9:00 p.m.
- No gang-related clothing or clothing with obscene language.
- Pants must be worn pulled up to the waist.
- Shoes and shirts are always required.
- No professional photography, videos or audio recordings.
- No smoking except in designated areas.
- No protesting, demonstrating or assembling in a manner that may disturb the public.
- No littering or defacing/destroying property.
- No loitering.
- No obscene or defamatory language.
- No weapons.
- Use of alcoholic beverages is restricted to designated areas.
- No animals except for leashed dogs, cats and service animals are permitted on property.

These and other guidelines must be followed at all times. Other guidelines are in effect and Hines and Atlantic Station Property Management reserve the right to revise or modify this code of conduct as necessary. Any exceptions to this code of conduct will be determined exclusively by Property Management. Please see an Atlantic Station Security Officer or Concierge for complete Code of Conduct.
